II. Exploring the Temple Complex

A. Description of the Architectural Style and Design

The Shri Beteraya Swami Devasthana mesmerizes visitors with its exquisite Dravidian architectural style. As one enters the temple complex, they are greeted by towering gopurams (ornate entrance towers) adorned with intricate sculptures depicting mythological tales and celestial beings. The templeâ??s layout follows traditional n to symmetry and symbolism evident in every corner.

History (à²¸à³□ à²¥à²³ à²®à²¹à²¿à²®à³?)

The Murakundu muniswaras and Chandrachudamuni who were pilgrims to the end of the Dwapara era, took a tour of the pilgrimage and red the beauty of the place. Therefore, the Mayavasi demons are dressed in a beastly form and tortured by angels, penitents and subjects, and the gods are requested to alleviate their fears and hardships with the Lord, Lord Mahavishnu. Hence the name Swamy is known as Sri Betteraya. Then, when the ritual is performed on the banks of the Naganadi, the ritual is performed to the munisvara and Chandrachudamuni, and the sages ask about the worship of the Lord, who resides there and protects the devotees. In response to his request, Lord Mahavishnu announced that he would receive the service of devotees by the name of Sribateraya in the Kali Yuga. Until that time, they fear that they will stay in this fold. Also, Lord Brahmadeva comes here every day in the form of a hung bird and prophesies to me that this Madi is known as Brahmatirtha (Bakshavihanamadu). Next to the story of the Lord Dwapara Yuga, who appeared in the dream to the great Chaudhayya of Kaliyuga, told me all that is in the form of a rock in the water. Accordingly, Chaudharya took the statue of the Swami in the Bodhi Vahanu Madhu Amma (Brahmathirth) as a form of Shraddri, a Brahministra, who was inspired by the Lord himself and called the cows milk on the sacred place of Prajapatti Samvatsa on the day of Sharavasya bhavasavali (119). That is, they were founded in the 11th century. Choudharyan was named as the `No` report. Sri Lakshmi Devi`s foundation was gradually established in the southwest corner of the city. The temple was established by the practices of Sri Pancharatrama and Vedic rituals. The temple has gained a lot of fame every day and has attracted numerous devotees for decades.

The daily services and anniversaries of the temple are celebrated by the pious enthusiasts and every year, the day of the Phalguna Shuddhi Krithika star, Anjarparna, the Rohini star, the Rathotsava Uttara star in the Maghra star and the bath. These are its specialties. And those who do not have children on the next day of gurudwara will receive fruit of Garuda bhukti prasad after garuda patta puja for those who want to bear fruit. The Kukke Sri Subrahmanyaswamy Temple and the temple are located in the same area as the Kukkee. If you want a brief introduction to Thiruvekere, the region was created in the 11th century and is a place where many people belonging to many traditional faith cultures live in harmony. All these factors are mentioned in the Mysore Gazetteer and in the Markandeya Purana.

Thiruvekere was dominated by the Hoysala Ballal, the 10th ruler of this clan, Imani Veeranarasingaraya and Queen Lokambika, who were inspired by Sriswamy and built the temple. And have contributed. This temple is most memorable during the development of the main cultural structure and nature of the festival and the services of the devotees. With the help of these villages the assistance of these villages ceased and the economic status of the temple was enhanced by Maharaja Immadi Krishnaraja Wodeyar. Earlier, the place was known by the name Vijayanarasimhapuri, which is gradually known as Thuruukere (Dhenu Puri).

The main reason for the establishment of this temple is that I am here to pray to Sri Mahavishnu who appreciated the penance of Sri Mukundumuni and Chandrachuda. The statue of the Swami (in the original sanctum sanctorum of Sri Bateraya Swamy in the original sanctum sanctorum) was taken from the sacred Brahmins of the Brahma Siddhivamsa of the Dashavadya Shavdhavadhya svaravatti day of the Dhavasdha svaravatti svaravatya day.

The temple hosts special festivals such as Gokulashtami, Shravan Rathasapthami, Brahmarathotsava, Vaikuntha Ekadashi, Vijayadashami and other festivals. The temple is said to be wedded to those who have a desire to get married. They do welfare. And Siddhi is the epitome of the devotees who seek out reproduction, especially the devotees who put up the circles.
